Nation's largest selection of books on modern political history, contemporary issues and Western civilization.

All those hard-to-find books you wanted to add to your library, but never could locate.

A random selection from our stock of over 500 titles.

DECLINE OF THE WEST, Vol. I & II by Oswald Spengler, Hardback, pp. 974 with index . . $20.00

The Decline of the West will probably prove to be the most important purely philosophical work of the 20th century.

IMPERIUM by Francis Parker Yockey, Paperback, pp. 626, with index $2.50

The long–supressed philosophy of history which has set off an explosive controversy since its publication.

THE PROCLAMATION OF LONDON by Francis Parker Yockey, Paperback $1.00

A succinct statement of the principles set forth in Imperium.

THE WILL TO POWER by Friedrich Nietzsche, Paper back pp. 575 with index $5.00

In many ways, The Will to Power is Nietzsche's most interesting work, being the assembled pieces of the philosopher's many notebooks. They provide a unique view of what Nietzsche felt about such various matters as religion, art, nature, etc., as opposed to his more formal philosophical pronouncements.

TREATISE ON THE GODS by H. L. Mencken, Paperback, pp. 287 with index $1.95

PREJUDICES: A SELECTION by H. L. Mencken, Paperback, pp. 258 . . . . . $1.65

The "Prejudices" selected for the above volume were drawn mainly from The American Mercury which Mencken once edited.

THE PHILOSOPHY OF NIETZSCHE by H. L. Mencken, Hardback, pp. 295, with index . . $9.50

SCHOPENHAUER AS EDUCATOR by Friedrich Nietzsche, Paperback, pp. 110 with appendix $.95

NATURE AND MAN'S FATE by Garrett Hardin, Paperback, pp. 297 with index, Illustrated . . $.95

This book debunks today's suicidal myth that man's society is independent of the laws of nature.

THE ORIGIN OF THE SPECIES and THE DESCENT OF MAN by Charles Darwin, Hardback, pp. 924 plus index, Illustrated $4.95

When Origin of the Species was originally published, the quiet English scientist couldn't have caused greater chaos in academic and ecclesiastical circles if he had knocked the world off its axis. Interestingly informal, both The Origin of the Species and The Descent of Man will appeal to any reader who is searching for the truth.

ESSAY ON THE FREEDOM OF THE WILL by Arthur Schopenhauer, Paperback, pp. 103 . $1.00

Those who have not read anything by Schopenhauer might have the misimpression that his books are archaic, academic or dry. This is far from the truth. Schopenhauer provided the foundation for the early idealist period in philosophy. We should pay special attention to Schopenhauer in this atomic age, when our basic principles of statecraft have gone so far astray.

THE WORLD AS WILL AND IDEA Three Volumes by Arthur Schopenhauer, pp. 1,536 $27.50

Also available under the following title:

THE WORLD AS WILL AND REPRESENTATION Paperback, pp. 1,221 with index . . . $5.50

JOYFUL WISDOM by Friedrich Nietzsche, Hardback, pp. 354, with appendix $5.50

THE PRINCE and THE DISCOURSES by Niccolo Machiavelli, Hardback, pp. 540 . . . . . $2.95

THE COUNTER-REVOLUTION by Thomas Molnar, Hardback, pp. 203 with index $8.95

SARTRE: IDEOLOGUE OF OUR TIME by Thomas Molnar, Hardback, pp. 138 with index $5.95

ON WAR by Carl von Clausewitz, Paperback, pp. 461, with index $1.65

Same book also available under this title:

WAR, POLITICS AND POWER $1.95

Clausewitz is best remembered for his dictum that war is a continuation of politics. His book makes for especially valuable reading on account of Clausewitz's observations on judicious and injudicious war. Although written during the 1820's while Clausewitz was director of the Berlin Academy (of Warfare), his observations on the principles of politics and war are as fresh as tomorrow. Of him it has been said, "Only if we understand warfare in the spirit of Clausewitz can we hope to maintain our existence in case necessity should once again force the sword into our hands."

Also by von Clausewitz:

PRINCIPLES OF WAR, by Carl von Clausewitz, Hardback, pp. 82 . . . . . $3.25

THE INEQUALITY OF THE RACES by Count Arthur de Gobineau, Paperback, pp. 212 plus index $4.00

THE VIKINGS by Johannes Brondsted, Paperback, pp. 321 with index $1.65

Includes 24 pages of handsome illustrations.

RACE AND CIVILIZATION by Roger Pearson, Paperback, pp. 130 with appendix, Illustrated $3.00

One of the best short works on the racial difference of the European peoples. Includes a wealth of illustration and typological maps.

FOUNDATIONS OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY, Vol. I & II by Houston Stewart Chamberlayne, Hardback, pp. 1,158, with index .. $32.50

The most renown and enduring history of the white race ever produced. This work is either revered or despised, depending on how one feels about the question of White racial supremacy.

RACE AND REALITY by Carlton Putnam, Paperback, pp. 192 with index $1.50

The sequel to Race and Reason bringing up-to-date the latest scientific findings on innate race differences between Blacks and Whites. Also presents a shocking account of how the liberal establishment paralyzes discussion of this timely subject, even in academic circles. Especially valuable for its seventy-page question-and-answer section which deals authorative answers to the most frequently-asked questions about race.

RACE AND REASON by Carlton Putnam, Paperback, pp. 118 with index $2.00

EUROPE AT THE CROSSROAD by Byram Campbell, Paperback ..... $.25

CHILDREN: BLACK AND WHITE by Henry E. Garrett, Paperback ..... $.50

Essential reading for any parent with school-age children! A cool-headed statistic-oriented analysis of the dismal effects of the integration experiment in public education.

LINCOLN'S NEGRO POLICY by Ernest Sevier Cox, Hardback $2.50

The Great Emancipator's dream was a White America.

FABRIC OF TERROR by Bernardo Teixeira, introduction by Robert Ruark and afterword by James Burnham, Hardback, pp. 176, Illustrated $4.95

America take note! The Fabric of Terror reveals what happens when the primitive African people are incited to mass violence. In just one day, the atrocities of the Black rebels of Angola surpassed those committed by their Mau Mau forerunners. The raw brutality, the rapes, obscenities and slaughter rank among the worst of all times.

RACE AND SOCIAL REVOLUTION by Byram Campbell, Hardback, pp. 262 ..... $3.00

Consisting of twenty-one essays on race divided into three books: The Biology of Race, The Sociology of Race and Social and Religious Values of Race. Includes a large bibliography of related reading.

CONGO MERCENARY by Michael Hoare, Hardback, pp. 318 with index, Illustrated $6.00

Congo Mercenary is a chilling account of the bloodbath which engulfed the Democratic Republic at the Congo in July, 1964, after only four years of independence. The Black rebel army, doped with heroin, struck terror in whole of central Africa. White mercenaries had to be brought in to quell the uprising and restore civil order to the shakey republic. The commander of the mercenary forces tells the story of their four main compaigns that year, and predicts grim consequences if the emerging African nations are allowed to fall into the grip of communism.

ENVIRONMENT, HEREDITY AND INTELLIGENCE by Arthur R. Jensen, Paperback .. $6.40

This is the article which embroiled Jensen in a sea of controversy just over two years ago. The near hysteria produced by its appearance has caused Jensen's scientific findings to be all but lost in the tumult. This is the unvarnished treatis which constitutes the most recent word in the science of race differences.

BRAINWASHING FROM PAVLOV TO POWERS by George Hunter, Hardback, pp. 328 with index $5.00

BLASTING THE HISTORICAL BLACKOUT by Harry Elmer Barnes, Paperback ..... $.50

Everyone knows that Germany was responsible for starting world War II. But an impassionate examination of the facts reveals a different picture altogether, with the greatest part of the guilt for this tragedy falling on Great Britain. This study, by America's foremost historian (until his recent death,) grew out of a review of A.J.P. Taylor's Origins of the Second World War.

RUDOLF HESS: PRISONER OF PEACE. Hardback, pp. 151, Illustrated $3.75

This book consists of an introduction by Hess' wife and some ninety letters written by the German envoy from prison. Includes the indictment upon which Hess was tried at Nuremberg. The reading of this book raises some compelling question: Why were Hess' proposals for peace spurned by the British authorities in 1941? Why was Hess imprisoned without even the opportunity to make his country's offers known to the English public? And above all, why was Hess ever tried as a war criminal?

THE SPECIOUS ORIGINS OF LIBERALISM by Anthony Ludocivi, Hardback, pp. 192 with index $4.00

Ludovici, an Englishman, started life as an artist and was for a while secretary to Auguste Rodin. He later turned to philosophy and became one of England's most highly recognized lecturers on Fredrich Nietzsche. Ludovici reveals the vacuity of the liberal philosophy. This book is both a plea for reason on the major issues facing our time and an outline of constructive means for combatting the liberal disease.

SUICIDE OF THE WEST by James Burhman, Hardback, pp. 306 with index $6.95

Does liberalism constitute a death wish for Western civilization? Why can't liberalism cope with the spread of communism? Burnham's analysis has infuriated liberals because of it's inescapable validity.

OPERATION SLAUGHTERHOUSE by John Prcela and Stanko Guldescu, Hardback pp. 557 $10

Eyewitness accounts of the postwar massacres in Yugoslavia. Relates the terrible suffering of the Croatian people as the communists consolidated their power in Eastern Europe. The fields, rivers and cities were littered with the bodies of more than two hundred thousand Croats, both military and civilian. The publication of Operation Slaughterhouse commemorates the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Bleiburg Tragedy, an act of peacetime genocide, which is recounted in its pages.

JEFFERSON AND/OR MUSSOLINI by Ezra Pound, Paperback, pp. 129 ..... $1.95

Behind the poet and literary critic stood a man of salient political ideas. Pound, in 1933, declared that the Jeffersonian political tradition was very much alive, but not in Virginia, Massachusetts or Delaware; Mussolini's Italy had become inheritor of those political virtures which made America great. Some may disagree with his thesis, but Pound's observations on the similarities in mind and personality of these two outstanding individualsareboth amazing and convincing.

THE LETTERS OF EZRA POUND 1907-1941 Paperback, pp. 348 with chronology and index $2.25

THE IDEOLOGY OF FASCISM by A. James Gregor, Hardback, pp. 493 with index . . . $11.95

The Ideology of Fascism represents the first responsible attempt to examine the social and political philosophy of Fascism since that movement's calamatous end in 1945. In addition, many of the problems of government in Italy are elucidated by the author's thorough presentation of facts. Dr. Gregor is recognized as the world's foremost authority in Fascism. His apprisal of this political and social idea is sincere and reliable.

Also by the same author:

CONTEMPORARY RADICAL IDEOLOGIES by A. James Gregor, Hardback, pp. 370 with index $6.50

A critique of totalitarian thought in the 20th century. Drawn heavily from primary source material.

A SURVEY OF MARXISM, PROBLEMS OF PHILOSOPHY AND THE THEORY OF HISTORY by A. James Gregor, Hardback, pp. 370 with index $6.95

WARTIME JOURNALS OF CHARLES A. LINDBERGH, Hardback, Illustrated $12.95

The honesty and insight of these diaries by one of America's great all-time heroes has been disarming to the U.S. political establishment. This is a reflective account to the wartime mood which enveloped America in the 40's. Lindbergh's vivid descriptions of his experiences in the Pacific battle area are exciting–his descriptions of the treatment of civilians in postwar Germany are sad.

QUISLING: PROPHET WITHOUT HONOR by Ralph Hewins, Hardback, pp. 316 Illustrated $6.00

LORD HAW HAW by J. A. Cole, Hardback, pp. 307 with index and Illustrations $4.95

ROOSEVELT'S ROAD TO RUSSIA by George N. Crocker, Hardback, pp. 316 Illustrated $6.00

Not a good book for those who want to revere the memory of Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

THE NEW UNHAPPY LORDS by A. K. Chesterton, Paperback, pp. 246 . . . . . $2.50

THE REVOLT AGAINST CIVILIZATION by Lothrop Stoddard, Paperback, pp. 268 . . . $1.50

Stoddard's opening line: "Civilization is the flowering of the human specis." Our present civilization faces possible destruction if communism continues its bloody advance. This is perhaps the most important book for political idealistson the defacing effects of communism which has ever been produced.

MYTH OF THE SIX MILLION, Anonymous, Paperback, pp. 104 with appendix $2.00

A top-to-bottom expose of the most monstrous lie of all times. Includes a revelation of the true facts plus some insights as to how and why this legend was propounded.

CRIMES DISCREETLY VEILED by J.F.P. Veale, Hardback, pp. 240 with index and maps . . $5.95

A damning expose of seven modern atrocities of major proportions which had been concealed by establishment historians. Includes the Katyn Forest Massacre, the murder of Mussolini and the perverse murder of Dr. Marcel Petiot of the Paris underground.

THE INTERNATIONAL JEW by Henry Ford, Sr., Hardback, pp. 232 . . . . . $3.00

THE WORLD CONQUERORS by Louis Marschalko, Paperback, pp. 296 . . . . . $3.00

CONQUEST THROUGH IMMIGRATION by Geo. W. Robnett, Hardback, pp. 407 with index $5.00

Both a survey of the strategic historical facts and an examination of the amibition-ridden personalities which brought about the realization of a Zionist state in the Middle East.

THE TALMUD UNMASKED by Rev. I. V. Pranaitis, Paperback $1.00

BEHIND COMMUNISM by Frank L. Britton, Paperback, pp. 97 . . . . . $1.00

Pulls no punches; tells the whole story.

KNOW YOUR ENEMY by Robert L. Williams, Paperback . . . . . $.50

AN OUTLAW'S DIARY by Cecile Tormay (Two Volumes), Hardback, pp, 526 . . . . . $10.00

FRANKFURTER'S RED RECORD by Sam Crockett, Paperback . . . . . $.50

The appalling record of the "Elder" who cast the die for many of the ruinous Supreme Court decisions which are being rendered today.

THE SOCIAL CONTRACT by Robert Ardrey, Hardback, pp. 410 with bibliography and index $7.95

The Social Contract is the third in a series of inquiries into the nature and temperament of man. Written in his customary narrative style, Ardrey maintains that men not only are not created equal, but that "Aggressiveness is the principal guarantor of survival."

Also by Robert Ardrey:

THE TERRITORIAL IMPERATIVE, Hardback, pp. 390 . . . . . $6.95

AFRICAN GENESIS, Hardback $6.95
Paperback . . . . . $.95

Not for fundamentalists, Ardrey's African Genesis presents the unsettling theory that man developed from a pre-historic killer ape; hence his prediliction for war and weapons. No fact-and-figure assortment of dry statistics, African Genesis must certainly make every reader at least secretly wonder.

THE CASE AGAINST PSYCHOANALYSIS by Andrew Salter, Paperback, pp. 158 . . . . . $1.50

This brilliant and clearly written book contains some of the most devastating assaults upon the shibboleths of modern psychoanalytic theory and practice ever expressed in print.

RACE AND MODERN SCIENCE, ed. by Robert Kuttner, Hardback, pp. 427, Indexed $7.95

Sixteen monographs dealing with the latest findings in racial science by the world's leading biologists, anthropologists, sociologists and psychologists, including C. D. Darlington, A. James Gregor, C. P. Oliver and others.
